Respectfully submitted,
PHYLLIS A. KIMBALL,
Treasurer

We have often been asked, "How do I get a library card?" This is not necessary. You select your book, and your name is placed on the book card, which is kept at the library. Everyone is welcome.

From June 1st to January 30th, 1970, we tried an experiment, keeping open two nights a week. This resulted in a 23% increase in evening circulation. During the winter, we have dropped back to Tuesday night only, plus Saturday afternoon. By April 1st, we hope to renew our Tuesday and Thursday night schedule.

Our thanks go to the Friends of the Library group, who have earned the money to have three of our five chairs resealed.

Many are enjoying our magazines. At present we have sixteen subscriptions (some donated), and 605 magazines were circulated in 1970.

Make use of the library. It exists to serve you.
